"SHOOT TO KILL" ORDER TO BE USED IN ACTION TO STOP COLORADO WAR

Comparative Quiet Reigns Except at Walsenburg—Fighting Has Been On There for Thirty-Six Hours—Homes Riddled by Field Guns.

Leavenworth, Kas., April 29.—The second squadron of the Fifth Cavalry comprising 300 men and officers left Fort Leavenworth for Trinidad, Col., at 3 o'clock this morning over the Missouri Pacific, in command of Captain C. C. Smith.

The squadron was dismounted, taking only its arms, ammunition and personal luggage and will arrive at Trinidad in about 26 hours.

Denver, Col., April 29.—The "federal invasion" of the coal strike district of Southern Colorado began early today. Troops E and H of the Twelfth Cavalry, commanded by Major McClure, reached Denver from Fort D. A. Russell at daylight and continued on to Canon City, where they will make their headquarters in the pacification of that section.

They constitute the advance guard of the regular soldiers.

Meanwhile, except at Walsenburg, comparative quiet reigns. The news that President Wilson had sent the cavalry was received with great joy everywhere and even before the details of his order had come, mine
